New - C.L.A.S.S.

Canine Life and Social Skills – Steamboat Springs - This class developed by APDT provides another great activity to strengthen communication and training using positive reinforcement and fun. We will assess your dog/handler core training skills and provide guidance for improving your teamwork training. Your proficiency in teaching and managing your dog will reach beyond basic "obedience" training.

This is an advanced class for family dog class or Canine Good Citizen graduates. If you would like to enroll you'll need to visit the C.L.A.S.S. web site and sign up with your dog. The first step in beginning the C.L.A.S.S. program is studying the rules and requirements in the Student Handbook. Go to: www.mydoghasclass.com and download the Student Handbook then register your dog.

Steamboat Springs September 15th 4 pm to 5 pm. You'll practice on your own and use class time for testing and help where needed. This class will run for 6 weeks. You will have the opportunity to progress through multiple levels as your skills improve.

Level 1 – B.A. skills include wait at the door, come and leashing up manners, loose leash walking and attention, meet and greet, leave it, wait for the food bowl, stay and settle.

Level 2 – M.A. skills include wait in the car, pass by other dogs, down/stand, handling, loose leash walking and leave it and stay.

Level 3 – Ph.D. skills include loose leash walking, back up, stay, come and leashing up manners, meet and greet, attention, table manners and sit.
